GUEST GUIDE

Welcome! We're excited to host your stay in San Francisco. Here are some helpful unit and local resources to help make your stay more comfortable. Make yourselves at home!

Unit Amenities

Wifi Access: Name: xyz - Password: 123

Bath towels exchange: We normally stack a few more towels than you need in the bathroom closet. Please hang your towels for future use. If you need new towels, please ask any of us downstairs and we will replace new ones for you.

Gas Stove: The gas stove needs to use the manual lighter in the top drawer on the left side of the stove.

Ear Plugs: If the street car noise bothers you, feel free to use the ear plugs for better sleep.

First Aid Kit: In the middle cabinet on the 3rd shelf. You are welcome to use items in it for emergency care.

Trash, Recycling, and Composting: Recycling and composting in San Francisco is mandatory. Please put all trash items in the black bin under the sink, all compost items in the grey bin under the sink, and all recyclables in the white bin underneath the television. You may leave bagged trash/compost/recycle items inside the gate downstairs anytime. We will put them away in the big trash cans in the garage downstairs.

Intercom and Door Buzzer: The door buzzer is located on the left side of the stairs. Please use the monitor to make sure you know the guest. Press the Door button to open the gate.

Respect our Neighbors: It is very important to keep the noise down for neighbors, especially in the evenings. Please do not play music or talk loudly on the porch. At late hours the kitchen is more appropriate for socializing and entertainment.

Check-out: Simple! Just leave the keys in the kitchen, please turn off all the lights, and close the entry door and gate before 12 noon. That's it! You are welcome to check-out with us downstairs if you leave during our business hours.

Local Resources

Grocery Stores: A convenience store around the corner. Within a few blocks is a Safeway store on First Street and Fifth Ave. A large Asian grocery store "Sunset Super" is on Orange Street and 17 Ave.

Laundry: There is no washer/dryer in the unit, a coin operated Laundromat is on Blueberry Street between 10th and 11th avenues.

Parking: Parking in surrounding blocks is free. There is a 2 hour limit on Orange Street, but no time limits on other street. Be careful about the street cleaning time to avoid getting ticketed ($64!). Also be careful not to block anyone's driveway.

Public Transportation: The N-Line Muni car stops at the corner of 18th Ave. In-bound car takes you to downtown San Francisco in about 25–35 minutes. The out-bound car will take you to Ocean Beach in less than 10 minutes

Primary contact: Jane Adams
Call or text: (415) 123-4567

LAND'S END

For a fun and not too challenging hike, Land's End is a beautiful coastal trail with unique views of the Golden Gate Bridge from the west side. This trail has quite a bit of stairs though, so you will need to do some climbing. The trail head is at the parking lot to the side of the Legion of Honor.

For a more hardy hike, Land's End is part of a larger coastal trail whose trail head begins at Sutro Baths in Point Lobos and extends until Eagle point at the tip top of the peninsula, passing through the USS San Francisco Naval Memorial, Mile Rock Beach, Land's End, and Deadman's Point. This trail can become pretty breezy as the sun sets so bring a fleece!

MOSAIC STEPS

At the end of Moraga street are beautiful mosaic steps climbing to the top of the hill. Unknown to many, your journey with a view doesn't have to stop here! At the top of the steps, make a right and follow the curve of the street until you see another set of stairs from the tall stone wall. At the top of those, continue right again and you will be able to climb to a peak with a 360 degree view (on a fog-less day) of San Francisco!

It's cold up there!

STRAWBERRY HILL

Strawberry hill is the highest natural point in the entire Golden Gate Park. It is an island situated at the center of Stow Lake. There's a variety of activities perfect for this location such as hiking, having a picnic, bird watching, visiting the waterfall, or just walking around and enjoying the views.

Stow Lake itself also has an array of activities. You could enjoy a nice stroll around it's 1.06 mile perimeter or rent a pedal boat at the Boathouse and go on the lake itself, circling Strawberry Hill and enjoying the scenery. At the heart of Golden Gate park, other attractions are a skip and a hop away!
